PSC NAMES EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

JEFFERSON CITY--The Missouri Public Service Commission has appointed Wess Henderson as executive director effective immediately.

As executive director, Henderson will be responsible for the overall administrative functions and the policy direction of the PSC staff. The executive director serves as the primary liaison between the commissioners and the staff.

Henderson has served as interim executive director since January. He has been with the Missouri Public Service Commission for 26 years. Henderson worked as an accountant and as assistant manager of rates in the PSC Water & Sewer Department and became director of the PSC Utility Operations Division in 1997. While interim executive director, Henderson continued his duties as Utility Operations division director.

Henderson has a masters degree in Public Administration from the University of Missouri-Columbia.
